

Bel Canto Farms presents

A Dressage Clinic and Benefit for Classical 89.5, KMFA-FM

with Reinhard A. Dorsch

International FEI-level trainer, competitor and coach

Saturday, January 2, 2010
Beginning at 9:00 am.

Please join us for a day of Classical Dressage & Classical Music!

Each session for this dressage clinic will run about 45 minutes.
Ride times will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Gourmet box lunches from Silk Apron Catering will be available for purchase during the lunch break.

A portion of all proceeds will benefit [Classical 89.5, KMFA-
FM](#), Austin's own classical music public-radio station.

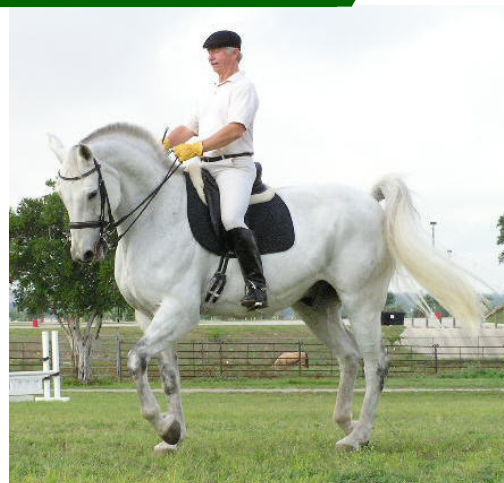

For more details and registration information, please contact:

Suzanne Warmack

Bel Canto Farms

3901 Mt. Gainor Road, Dripping Springs, TX 78620

512.797.1178 – BelCantoFarms.com

Reinhard A. Dorsch is an international FEI-level trainer, competitor and coach who has shown, trained and instructed in Germany, Austria, Canada, Mexico and the USA. His students have been very successful at shows, including several National Champions.

Mr. Dorsch competed in Dressage, Jumping and Combined Training in Europe and Mexico. In the USA, he was the Head Trainer of riders and horses of the touring World Famous Lipizzaner Stallion Show for five years, and continues to train for them on occasion.

His philosophy reflects a classic training style, and he believes in training correctly from the beginning in order to achieve true harmony with the horse. He and his students have enjoyed success at all levels of showing.

For more information, visit his website:
www.ClassicDressageTraining.com